Autism in Childhood and Autistic Features in Adults

Edited by Kate Barrows

KARNAC
CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS  ix
ABOUT THE EDITOR AND CONTRIBUTORS  x

Introduction
Kate Barrows  1

PART I: AUTISM IN CHILDREN  19

CHAPTER ONE
A psychiatric approach to autism and its relationship to a psychoanalytic perspective
David Simpson  21

CHAPTER TWO
A significant element in the development of psychogenic autism
Frances Tustin  39

CHAPTER THREE
Finding the wavelength: tools in communication with children with autism
Anne Alvarez  63
CHAPTER FOUR
Analysis of a little girl with an autistic syndrome
Velleda Cecchi

CHAPTER FIVE
“Playful” therapy: working with autism and trauma
Paul Barrows

CHAPTER SIX
The creation of psychic space, the “nest of babies” fantasy and the emergence of the Oedipus complex
Didier Houzel

CHAPTER SEVEN
Joining the human family
Maria Rhode

PART II: AUTISTIC FEATURES IN ADULTS

CHAPTER EIGHT
Autistic phenomena in neurotic patients
H. Sydney Klein

CHAPTER NINE
The rhythm of safety
Frances Tustin

CHAPTER TEN
The autistic object: its relationship with narcissism in the transference and countertransference of neurotic and borderline patients
Mario J. Gomberoff, Carmen C. Noemi and Liliana Pualuan de Gomberoff

CHAPTER ELEVEN
Working analytically with autistic-contiguous aspects of experience
Thomas H. Ogden
CHAPTER TWELVE
On the survival function of autistic manoeuvres in adult patients

Judith Mitrani

CHAPTER THIRTEEN
Keeping the ghosts at bay: an autistic retreat and its relationship to parental losses

Kate Barrows

CHAPTER FOURTEEN
Finding the bridge: psychoanalysis with two adults with autistic features

Caroline Polmear

INDEX